Forked Roads: The Beginning of a Webcomic

My Honors in the Major Project for the Studio Art Major centers on the first of three already-written episodes of Forked Roads, an upcoming webcomic, which will ultimately consist of 60 episodes. The story of the first episode is about Ajay Dusk, an introverted 15-year-old nekomata. She's just living a quiet, studious life as a student at Portum High School for Familiars, until one day she gets horrible news: she's getting roommates! The rest of the series will follow the misadventures of these shape-shifting cats as they learn to put up with each other.
